

I do not want banks or other businesses calling me. I signed up for the "No Call" list as an intentional act to say that I want my privacy at home. I should have the right to say do not call and bother my family.